SULTANS LEAVE LASTING IMPRESSION

Combined support by the Ministry of Sports, Sports Tourism, ABI Bank, ABBA, Schools Basketball Officials, and the CPTSA Wings Sports Club ensured that the visiting Sultan Prospects basketball team from Ontario, Canada have the most enjoyable and memorable time in Antigua.

Besides playing basketball, the Canadians visited the Christ the King High School where they interacted with students from Form 1 to Form 5.

The Ministry of Tourism provided the visitors with an Island tour, and with Randy Allen of Wings Sports Club as tour guide, were treated to some of the most exciting scenes and historical sights in Antigua.

In all, the friendliness and camaraderie of the Sultan Prospects and the Antiguan teams and fans will long be remembered and again support the case for enhancing Sports Tourism.

Thanks must go out to Anne Jonas, Jerry Williams and Big George in the Ministry of Sports and Joanne Bird-George of ABI Bank for their assistance.

Director of Sports, Mervyn Richards presented "A little Bit of Paradise" to Sultan Prospects on behalf of Ministry of Sports & Ministry of Tourism.

The Sultans put on a four game clinic of offensive and defensive systems to show the Antigua basketball fraternity that hard work, patience, and organize play will produce winning ways. The Canadians ended their vacation undefeated, blowing out all their four opponents, including Wings, Wadadli Wildcats, Lady Vipers and Combined Schools. They left Antigua on Mar 19.
