Could this be you?

We are now even more excited about the first CCR later this year! Having just spent another week in Antigua, plans are afoot for a great reception for each and every one of you into Jolly Harbour. Antigua really is the yachting capital of the Caribbean and enthusiasm on the island is growing for the new transatlantic rally adding to their sailing season. To give you an idea of the other events you can participate in when you get there:

13th - 16th Feb: Jolly Harbour Valentines Regatta + Rum Festival

(CCR participants get a discount on entry fees)

24th - 28th Feb: RORC Caribbean 600

17th - 22nd April: Antigua Classics Yacht Regatta

25th April: Guadeloupe to Antigua Race

26th April: Yachting World Round Antigua Race

27th April - 2nd May: Antigua Sailing Week

To help plan your whole season, you can see full listings of all the Caribbean regattas here

We are pleased to have English Harbour Rum on board as our rum sponsor (you can't arrive in Antigua without trying some of their famous rum punch!). We have also had great support from the Antigua and Barbuda Tourism Authority who are right behind us and looking forward welcoming all the boats to Antigua. The bars and restaurants in Jolly Harbour itself are currently firming up discounts and offers for CCR participants, and we are finalising the social schedule. With all this going on, when you arrive all you'll have to worry about is a) what you want to do, and b) when do you want to do it! We'll make the rest happen.

Are you Irish, Welsh or Scottish - or perhaps all 3?!

The CCR has had entries from mainland Europe, and from further afield as far as Australia. We are delighted with the diverse range of nationalities but feel sorry that the Irish, Scots and Welsh aren't yet represented in the fleet! Therefore, we are offering £100 off the entry price for the first yacht of each of these countries to enter the CCR. Remember that the entry fee listed on the website is inclusive, there are no extras for crew – so you can bring as many crew as you like! If you're not sure what else is included and what fantastic value for money this is, take a look here!

BOOK OF THE MONTH

Passage Planning Made Perfect, Alistair Buchan

There is still a chance to enter our new competition to win a free copy of this newly published book, courtesy of Adlard Coles.

BUT YOU MUST BE QUICK:

THE DEADLINE IS TOMORROW - 1st JUNE!

All you need to do is answer this simple question:

From which famous Caribbean island is this photo taken?

Hint: it also happens to be the destination of the CCR!

See some terms and conditions here

And finally....

Thanks to all those that came to the Transatlantic Forum on 11-

12th May. It's always a pleasure meeting likeminded sailors, with ambition to sail the Atlantic and the world's oceans. If you couldn't make it, dates for next year are to be announced shortly to get in your diaries!

We are always around for a chat, so if there's anything at all you would like to know about the rally (or us!) then please give us a call or email anytime. We'd be delighted to hear from you!
